BRICKS WITHOUT STRAW.

More than a thousand years ago—
Shadows of time, how the days go by—
There was a man I used to know—
May seem strange, but you'll see it's so—
After I tell you the reason why—
Worked in a brickyard, same as you
And all of us have to do;
Mixed in the trouble and worry of strife,
The mirth and the other things of life;
Stirred in the hopes and the pains and fears,
Kneaded the mud with his sweat and his tears,
Humaneest man that ever you saw,
"Poor brick!" said the man, "but I have no straw!"

Up to his knees in the mucky pit,
A pygmy's way, but a giant's grit;
His back was a chain of throbbing aches,
Lifting the mold with his earthen cakes;
Elbows rusty as hinges of steel,
Knees so lame he could hardly kneel;
And so stiff it would dog a plow
And couldn't be stirred with a wheel now;
Nights as short as the days were long;
Nothing seemed right, but everything wrong.
"Best I can do," said the man; "but, pshaw,
You can't make brick when you have no straw!"

Taskmasters pitiless lashed the man,
"Can't!" sobbed Weakness, but Courage cried,
"Can!"

"Don't!" said Despair, but Duty cried, "Do!"
"All right," said the man, "I'll worry her through!"

Can't do much, and I reckon you'll see
Brick won't be just what they ought to be;
Ain't nigh so good as I know I ought to make
If I just had straw; but you'll have to take
The best I can do for the world's own sake."

He finished his tale of brick and then
Went home to rest, and as some of men
Looked on his pet work and saw
He'd spoiled the brick had he put in straw.

—Robert J. Burdette.

GREYHOUNDS.

They are the Fleetest of All Four Footed Animals.

Comparatively few people realize of what remarkable speed dogs are capable. Some remarkable statistics in regard to this have been gathered by M. Dusolier, a French scientist. According to his calculations the marvelous endurance shown by little fox terriers who follow their masters patiently for hours while the latter are riding on bicycles or in carriages, he says that even greater endurance is shown by certain wild animals that are akin to dogs.

Thus the wolf can run between 50 and 60 miles in one night, and an arctic fox can do quite as well if not better.

Nansen met one of these foxes on the ice at a point more than 70 miles north of the Sanuk territory, which is 450 miles from the Asiatic coast. Eskimo and Siberian dogs can travel 45 miles on the ice in five hours, and there is one case on record in which a team of Eskimo dogs traveled 6 1/2 miles in 28 minutes.

According to M. Dusolier, the speed of the shepherd dogs and those used in hunting ranges from 10 to 15 miles a second. English setters and pointers hunt at the rate of 18 to 19 miles an hour, and they can maintain this speed for at least two hours.

Foxhounds are extraordinarily swift, as is proved by the fact that a dog of this breed once beat a thoroughbred horse, covering four miles in 6 1/2 minutes, which was at the rate of nearly 18 yards a second.

Greyhounds are the swiftest of all four footed creatures, and their speed may be regarded as equal to that of carrier pigeons. English greyhounds, which are carefully selected and which are used for coursing, are able to cover at full gallop a space between 18 and 23 yards every second.

How great an achievement this is may be judged from the fact that a thoroughbred horse rarely if ever exceeds 10 yards. Moreover, it is said that a hare at its greatest speed never goes faster than at the rate of 18 yards.

These interesting statistics are exciting much comment among sportsmen and other lovers of dogs, and the opinion is unanimous that M. Dusolier has fully proved the right of the greyhound to rank as the swiftest of the quadrupeds. Express engines only surpass them.—London Mail.

Tentative Interment.

A poor Scotchwoman lay dying, and her husband sat by her bedside. After a time the wife took her husband's hand and said:

"John, we're going to part. I have been a guide wife to ye, haven't I?"

John thought a moment.

"Well, just middling like, Jenny, ye know," anxious not to say too much.

Again the wife spoke.

"John," she said faintly, "ye man promise to bury me in the auld kirkyard at Str'aven beside my nither. I could na rest in peace among unco' folk in the dirt and smoke o' Glasgow."

"Weel, weel, Jenny, my woman," said John soothingly, "we'll just try ye in Glasgie first, an' gin ye dinna be quiet we'll try ye in Str'aven."—Spare Moments.

He Didn't Complain.

Young Wife—This talk about men being so impatient when a woman is getting ready to go anywhere is all nonsense.

Friend—Doesn't your husband complain at all?

Young Wife—No, indeed! Why, last evening I couldn't find my gloves and had a long hunt for half a dozen other things, and yet when I was finally dressed and went down stairs to my husband there he was by the fire reading and smoking as calmly as if I wasn't half an hour late.

Friend—Well, I declare! Where were you going?

Young Wife—To prayer meeting.—New York Weekly.

As She Saw It.

Mrs. Kleener—What is the matter with you this evening, John, that you ain't smoking?

Mrs. Kleener—The doctor says I mustn't. He says I must stop smoking or die.

Mrs. Kleener—Oh, I'm so glad! You won't be seeping up my curtains any more, will you?—Boston Transcript.

A DREARY EXISTENCE

THE LONELINESS OF THE ENGLISH
LIGHTHOUSE KEEPERS.

At the Bishop Station the Sentinel
That Lights the Waves Lives in Almost Utter Isolation—A Service
With Few Enticing Features.

During the storms that rage intermittently around the English coast in winter the lighthouse keeper lives in sympathy toward those who in ship or lifeboat are fighting the waves for their life. But how often does he give one thought to the men who immerse themselves in the lighthouses that stud the coast?

"I would rather spend my life in a penal settlement than be a lighthouse keeper," declared a man to the writer after a visit to the Bishop Lighthouse, off the Cornish coast. "A convict does see a little of the world he lives in, but a lighthouse keeper sees nothing but the dreary expanse of water. I am not surprised that many of them should lose their mental balance."

The visitor to the Bishop Lighthouse did not overcolor the picture. It was only the other day that one read of the Longships Lighthouse, also off the coast of Cornwall, having been completely isolated for many weeks in consequence of fearful storms. The keepers had been reduced to smoking coffee, hops and tea leaves, though, fortunately, they had not wanted for food.

The keepers of the famous Eddystone lighthouse not infrequently find themselves in a similar predicament. In a gale the waves that buffet themselves against this wonderful monument to the engineering skill of the country are of such stupendous magnitude that they rise to a height of 200 feet and sweep right over the lantern. To those cooped up inside the sound of these waves is like that of a battery of guns at close quarters. At such times the house shakes like a tree with a man on the top of it, "was the graphic description of one who spent many years of his life there.

The new Eddystone is the roomiest and most comfortable of all our rock lighthouses. A sectional view of it shows the various compartments, commencing at the bottom with the water tank; then the entrance, the two oil receptacles, the storeroom, the crane, the living apartment, the low light, the bedroom and the service room in the order named. Formerly only two keepers were employed in the light house, but a great incident resulted in the two men died. So fierce ran the seas that the remaining keeper could not get the body of his late comrade to shore. For a month the temporary weather continued, and for a month the surviving keeper lived alone with the body as his only companion. He was afraid to cast it into the waves, for he might be accused of murder.

Keepers of rock lighthouses do not last long. The incessant pounding of the waves against the building, the loneliness, the want of fresh air and exercise reduce the men to a state of nervousness that is sometimes pitiful to behold. They require a fortnight's leave every six weeks, but this liberal allowance does little to improve their physical state. A medical man whose duty it is to pay periodical visits to one of these lighthouses confesses that there is no remedy for the ills peculiar to the keepers except retirement.

The utter isolation of the silent sentinels of our coast is well illustrated by the case of the Bishop Lighthouse aforementioned, which stands right out in the Atlantic. Not once in a year is it calm enough for the superintendent to land his men. At the lighthouse steps. They have to be hauled up by means of a windlass from above. A visitor bold enough to visit the place is "admitted" in a similar way. He places one foot in a noose at the end of a rope, which is thrown down to his boat, and, gripping the rope firmly above his head, he is drawn up to the "see out" as the plinth around the lighthouse is called. Thence he climbs up a perpendicular ladder to the door of the house.

Superstition adds a terror to the life of the men in this lighthouse, for the first structure was washed away bodily, and the keepers believe that the rock is haunted. A fear of a different kind keeps the men of Muckle Flugga lighthouse, the most northern point of Scotland, on the tenterhooks of a terrible suspense. On three occasions the huge black rock on which the lighthouse stands has been shaken by an earthquake.

There is something comical, though characteristic of the stiff necked Scot, in a story which comes from a neighboring lighthouse which is the charge of two families. They live on year end and they never see a visitor except the man who brings their stores. Eighteen months ago the heads of the two families quarreled, and ever since they have ceased to speak.

At the shore lighthouse of Ushinish the keeper's family has to travel 40 miles to "kirk." It is no reflection on their piety to add that they are not regular attendants.

A lighthouse keeper receives a maximum wage of £75 a year, out of which he has to supply his own rations. These consist of such unappetizing edibles as tinned beef and hard biscuits, usually washed down with weak tea and condensed milk. No intoxicating liquors are allowed.—London Mail.

TOOK HIM LITERALLY.

That Was Why His Signature Was Rejected at the Bank.

"Bank clerks are so often called upon for directions that they sometimes fall into the habit of giving them in a hurried and mechanical manner, consequently they are frequently misunderstood," remarked the clerk of a savings institution to a reporter the other day. "For instance, the usual formula when a stranger is called upon to sign his name is, 'Sign here; pen and ink at your left hand.' One morning last week a stranger entered our bank and asked me for a certificate of deposit for a considerable sum of money which he handed over. I counted the money and found the amount to be as stated and hurriedly said, 'Sign here; pen and ink at your left hand.'"

"Well, it took the stranger a long time to sign his name, but I thought nothing more of it and issued the certificate of deposit. About a week later the same man, whose face I had forgotten, reappeared and presented the certificate. He dashed off an ornate signature, which I proceeded to compare with the first signature. The two were vastly different, as the first one was apparently the labored effort of an old man."

"I can't pay you this money, sir," I said.

"Why not?" asked the astonished stranger.

"Because it is not the signature of the man to whom I issued the certificate of deposit," I replied.

"Well," said the stranger, "when I was here a week ago you told me to write my name with my left hand, and I did so, but I can't write very well that way."

"Then will you oblige me by writing your name with your right hand again," I asked as a light dawned upon me.

"Certainly," said the man, and after much labor he produced a facsimile of his first signature, and I apologized and paid him his money.—Washington Star.

FLOWER AND TREE.

Plants cannot live if deprived of their leaves.

Tea plants at the age of 7 years yield 700 pounds of tea to the acre.

The date palm requires a hot, dry air, but moisture about the roots and plenty of it.

Palms never live more than 250 years. Ivy has been known to live 450, chestnut 800, oak 1,000 and yew 2,880.

An oak tree of average size, with 700,000 leaves, lifts from the earth about 125 tons of water during the five months it is in leaf.

Jasmine is an Indian shrub. Its starry, wax white blossoms are indescribably sweet. All the burning pain and passion and pathos and mystery of the Hindoo race seem to rise up to you in its breath.

There is a rose tree with a trunk 2 feet 9 inches in circumference in a Ventura garden in California. It is a La marquise, has been growing a quarter of a century and yielded over 21,000 blooms in 1895.

Cents East and West.

"There is always a scarcity of pennies in the west," says an official of the Philadelphia mint, "and a superabundance of them in the east. Every little while the banks out there set up a hoot and cry for pennies, but our banks here are ever glad to rid themselves of their surplusage."

The utter isolation of the silent sentinels of our coast is well illustrated by the case of the Bishop Lighthouse aforementioned, which stands right out in the Atlantic. Not once in a year is it calm enough for the superintendent to land his men. At the lighthouse steps. They have to be hauled up by means of a windlass from above. ## GIVE US A STRONG BOARD OF HEALTH.

Deferring to the demands of the Woman's Club and one hundred and eight citizens of Sonoma, who petitioned the City Trustees Wednesday night to appoint a Board of Health, President Duhring has been instructed by the Trustees over whom he presides to appoint such a Board, which is restricted by ordinance to three members.

The unsanitary condition of Sonoma demands the appointment of a Health Board that will go ahead and do its duty without fear and without favor, to the end that the Health Ordinance be enforced strictly to the letter.

Now that public sentiment is so strongly in favor of abating the many public nuisances that have so long been allowed to exist in our midst, to the detriment of the health of the town, and improving its sanitary condition in other ways, it would be a weak Board of Health indeed that could not bring its courage up to the sticking point and stand in with life in its battle with the death that is lurking in the noisome vapors being generated in the open ditches and water courses that meander through the town.

Owing to the lethargy of our citizens in the past these befoiled water courses have been the cause of much sickness and not a few deaths in this community and the only wonder is that they have not bred a general epidemic in our midst long ago.

As the years come and go these water courses are becoming more and more repulsive and those of our citizens who persist in using them as open sewers must be brought to a realization that there is a health ordinance governing such matters and that they must comply with it.

Therefore we say, give us a strong Board of Health. Better have none at all than a weak one.

Stop the Blight

It is a sad thing to see fine fruit trees spoiled by the blight. You can always tell them from the rest. They never do well afterwards but stay small and sickly.

It is worse to see a blight strike children. Good health is the natural right of children. But some of them don't get their rights. While the rest grow big and strong one stays small and weak.

Scott's Emulsion can stop that blight. There is no reason why such a child should stay small. Scott's Emulsion is a medicine with lots of strength in it—the kind of strength that makes things grow.

Scott's Emulsion makes children grow, makes them eat, makes them sleep, makes them play. Give the weak child a chance. Scott's Emulsion will make it catch up with the rest.

This picture represents the Trade Mark of Scott's Emulsion and is on the wrapper of every bottle.

THE OBSERVER.

HUSBAND WANT ADS.

Public opinion has no patience with a man who is duped through a matrimonial advertisement. If a card sharp, a gold brick swindler or any of this sort of bunco people take him in he is pitied—even sympathized with. When, however, he is fool enough to take stock in the woman who advertises for a husband we all feel like giving him a pronounced kick. Every year the fool-killer leaves a whole lot of men who fall victims to this class of swindlers, and in spite of warnings and exposures they will take a chance.

If a man has to resort to the bargain counters for a wife he must be something of a degenerate or in this age of feminine precocity he would have been nabbed long ago. The woman who advertises for a husband knows that these are the only kind of correspondents they will get and knowing this she cannot be particular or she would not advertise. Why then do men with any common sense seek out such women for wives? Occasionally there are cases where excellent men have been taken in. They are generally individuals who do not know much of the ways of the world or individuals who regard marriage under all circumstances a lottery and decide to chance this mode rather than to wait for Cupid to guide. Such unfortunates hasten to exchange photographs with the lady of means whose object is matrimony, and after a glib billet doux asking for money to come to him, a crisp bill is sent. No lady ever shows up to share his lot and finally the poor victim comes out of his trance a sad though wiser man. Occasionally he has sense enough to bring his fair deceiver to justice and save his fellows like treatment. Men of such calibre are too good for angling women to have ever gotten on a string.

Clubdom has struck Sonoma. The women have banded together and are entering into the spirit of public improvement with a zeal becoming the most ardent enthusiast. Sociability is being promoted, harmony is spreading its unruffled wings over the community and unity will soon accomplish that which warring forces have ever failed to do. There is no negative side to be debated in the Woman's Club. All are leaders working toward a positive pole with no resistant forces. As long as this is the condition of things success will follow in its wake. We should all lend our aid and give substantial support to such improvements as those to be made on the public Plaza for instance. Money and time expended there is well invested, for the Plaza is as much yours as it is mine. It belongs to us and we can see where every second of our time and every cent of our money has been expended. Each blade of grass, each leaf and each flower represents your investment.

We take pride in our home. Why not then in public property? This is why the women are interesting themselves. A special contributor to the Los Angeles Times has said: "Housekeeping has been the main occupation of women for countless thousands of years, and the instinct in cleaning things up is now inherent with them. The passion for housekeeping is carried out into the streets and transformations have taken place in our great cities."

The writer has solved the problem of Women's Improvement Clubs when he traces the reason of their being to the passion for housekeeping. It is for beauty and order that women strive in their homes, and as they would have their homes so would they have all their surroundings.

Superior Court Notes.

In Department One of the Superior Court, Judge Dougherty presiding, the following business was transacted Monday:

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer one Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

All Ready For Baby,

The young mother thinks, when she has completed the baby garments that are to clothe the little form. But she is not all ready for baby's coming, unless she has done something more for the baby than merely to prepare his clothes. Many a young mother who goes through hours of pain and suffering wonders why it was not possible to prepare in some way for the baby's advent, and to avoid the agony that seemed almost unendurable. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the one medicine for women which prepares them perfectly, both for the burdens and pleasures of maternity. It prevents the morning sickness from which so many women suffer. It strengthens the whole body, so that there is no nervousness nor anxiety. It promotes a healthy appetite and causes refreshing sleep. It gives the mother strength for her trial and makes the baby's advent practically painless. Healthy babies, healthy children, and it is the general testimony of those who have used Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription as a preparative for motherhood, that the children were healthier and happier than those born after months of mental misery and physical anguish on the part of the prospective mother.

Sick and ailing women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce's letter, absolutely without fee or charge. As chief consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., Dr. R. V. Pierce, assisted by his staff of a score of physicians, has in the past thirty years and over treated and cured more than half a million sick and suffering women. The testimonials of these cured women are on record. A large number of them were cured when doctors had pronounced a cure impossible and after enduring years of useless suffering.

Let no sick women hesitate to take advantage of Dr. Pierce's offer, but write at once and so secure the professional counsel of a specialist in the diseases of women, entirely free. All correspondence strictly private and secretly confidential. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Hoped for Death.

"For the sake of poor suffering women, I feel it my duty to inform you of the great benefit your medicine has given me," writes Mrs. Callie Bowles, of Watts, Indell Co., N. C. "I was in a most miserable condition when I wrote to you. I had uterine disease so bad I could scarcely walk and suffered such dreadful misery I hoped to be relieved by death. You wrote to me to take your 'Favorite Prescription' and I have taken eleven bottles of it, and two of your 'Pleasant Pellets.' I am entirely well and feel like a new woman. I feel thankful to God and to Dr. Pierce for the blessings I now enjoy. I have a fine big boy, two months old and never got along as well in my life. I can't praise your medicines enough."

Very Thankful.

"I will be very glad to say a few words for Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription," writes Mrs. P. S. Douglas, of Mansville, Bromo Co., Quebec. "During the first four months when I looked forward to becoming a mother I suffered very much from nausea and vomiting and I felt so terrible sick I could scarcely eat or drink anything. I hated all kinds of food. At this time I wrote to Dr. Pierce and he told me to get his 'Favorite Prescription' and a bottle of his 'Golden Medical Discovery.' I got a bottle of each and when I had taken a few bottles I felt much better and when I had taken hardly three parts of each bottle I felt well and could eat as well as any one, and could do my work without any trouble. (I could not do any thing before). I feel very thankful to Dr. Pierce for his medicine. I feel all who tell me they are sick to get these medicines or write to Dr. Pierce."

ARE YOU DEAF? ANY HEAD NOISES?

ALL CASES OF DEAFNESS OR HARD HEARING ARE NOW CURABLE

by our new invention. Only those born deaf are incurable. HEAD NOISES CEASE IMMEDIATELY.

F. A. WERNER, OF BALTIMORE, SAYS:

Gentlemen:—Being entirely cured of deafness, thanks to your treatment, I will now give you a full history of my case, to be used at your discretion.

About five years ago my right ear began to ring, and this kept on getting worse, until I lost my hearing in this ear entirely.

I underwent a treatment for catarrh, for three months, without any success, consulted a number of physicians, among others, the most eminent ear specialist of this city, who told me that only an operation could help me, and even that only temporarily, that the head noises would then cease, but the hearing in the affected ear would be lost forever.

I then saw your advertisement accidentally in a New York paper, and ordered your treatment. After I had used it only a few days according to your directions, the noises ceased, and to-day, after five weeks, my hearing in the diseased ear has been entirely restored. I thank you heartily and beg to remain Very truly yours,

EARLY PRUNING.

Has Been Found to Lead to Good Results.

Pruning in many of the vineyards and orchards in this valley will commence this month. It has been demonstrated in this and other counties of the State that early pruning has led to much better results than late pruning and it is only a question of time when it will be the rule instead of the exception in this valley.

All Stuffed Up

That's the condition of many sufferers from catarrh, especially in the morning. Great difficulty is experienced in clearing the head and throat.

No wonder catarrh causes headache, impairs the taste, smell and hearing, pollutes the breath, deranges the stomach and affects the appetite.

To cure catarrh, treatment must be constitutional—alterative and tonic. "I was afflicted with catarrh. I took medicines of different kinds, giving each a fair trial; but gradually grew worse until I could hardly hear, taste or smell. I then concluded to try Hood's Sarsaparilla, and after taking five bottles I was cured and have not had any return of the disease since." EUGENE FORBES, Lebanon, Kan.

Hood's Sarsaparilla
Cures catarrh—it soothes and strengthens the mucous membrane and builds up the whole system.

THE CITY FATHERS.

Representatives From the Woman's Club Present Petitions.

There was an interesting meeting of the City Trustees Wednesday evening, a full Board being present. The dull routine of the meeting was enlivened by the presence of six representatives from the Sonoma Valley Woman's Club, comprising the Plaza and Sanitary Committees of that organization—an innovation as it were on the customs a very slow town and quite a surprise to "Dr." Tony Nufer, who just dropped in but as suddenly dropped out again.

The ladies present were Mrs. Susie T. Enos, Mrs. Green and Mrs. Hotz, representing the Sanitary Committee, and Mrs. Emparan, Mrs. Quartaroli and Mrs. Bates, the Plaza Committee of the Woman's Club.

After the usual monthly bills had been passed upon and a communication from the California Municipalities read, Mrs. Emparan, presented a petition requesting that the members of the Woman's Club be granted permission to beautify and improve the Plaza, a big undertaking when it is taken into consideration that it embraces eight acres of primitiveness.

The proposition was favorably received, and in order that the good work be facilitated the matter was referred to the Plaza Committee of the Board, Messrs. V. Bulotti and S. Ciucci.

Mrs. Enos then arose and urged the Trustees to appoint a Board of Health and enforce the provisions of the Sanitary Ordinance. To back up her request she read and presented to the Trustees a petition signed by one hundred and eight citizens of Sonoma.

On motion of Trustee Hotz, which received a second from Trustee Harris, the President of the Board of Trustees was instructed to appoint a Board of Health to consist of three members, one of whom must be a physician.

This is a great victory for the ladies, provided President Duhring appoint men who have the backbone to do their duty, otherwise the work of the Woman's Club in that direction will have gone for naught. Having scored their point the ladies retired and the Trustees proceeded to the transaction of other but less important business.

The bridge opposite the Bulotti residence on Napa street was ordered replanked and the bridge opposite the Hotz residence on Broadway was ordered to be repaired; the work to be done under the direction of the Street Committee.

The following bills were allowed and ordered paid:

|                                   |          |
|-----------------------------------|----------|
| J. H. Albertson, Marshal's salary | $15 00  |
| W. T. Rutledge, electric light    | 51 00    |
| E. Pinelli, cleaning ditch        | 3 00     |
| L. Breitenbach, street sprinkling | 20 17    |
| Joe B. Small, salary, etc.        | 26 35    |
| League Cal. Municipalities        | 10 00    |
| R. McDonnell, gravel              | 170 00   |
| Total                             | $295 52 |

The bill of R. McDonnell created quite a breezy discussion between President Duhring and Mr. McDonnell. The bill was for 200 square yards of gravel. After a whole lot of hot air had been exhausted the bill was paid and the vociferous and successful claimant smiled a smile that was beautiful in the extreme.

The Board then "went w-a-y back and sat down."

JERRY LINEHAN.

Will Leave Here After a Residence of Over Forty Years.

Mr. and Mrs. Linehan and Miss Marjorie Linehan leave Sonoma Monday for San Francisco, where they will reside in the future.

The Linehans have resided here for two score years and at one time Jerry Linehan was one of the most prosperous and well-to-do men in the valley. In the early days he owned a stage line and two large livery stables in this place which reaped him a rich harvest in the "days of old, the days of gold." By shrewd but honest business methods he also accumulated considerable valuable real estate and at one time was the owner of the property extending from the Union Hotel on Napa street to the McDonnell lot on Broadway. Then came two destructive fires, one following the other, and Jerry Linehan was a ruined man financially. He attempted to retrieve his lost fortune but after several unsuccessful attempts he finally gave up in despair.

For many years Jerry Linehan, who is one of the few surviving pioneers of Sonoma, has lived in an unpretentious cottage, the only thing he saved out of his wrecked fortune. Here it was that Mr. and Mrs. Linehan reared a family of several children all of whom have reached their majority.

The Linehans leave many friends behind who wish them success in their new home.

THE CHINESE

EXCLUSION ACT.

Supervisors Favor Re-Enactment and Appoint Delegates to Convention.

The Convention called by the Board of Supervisors of the City and County of San Francisco for the purpose of taking steps to have the Congress re-enact the Geary Exclusion Act, which expires next May, will convene in that city on Thursday, November 21st. The convention will be composed of delegates from every county in the State to be chosen by their respective Supervisors.

On Tuesday last the Supervisors of this county appointed five delegates to the convention as follows: Hon. T. J. Geary, ex-Congressman; Hon. J. D. Connolly, ex-U. S. Consul to Auckland; Harrison Meacham, H. H. Granice, editor Sonoma Index-Tribune and J. C. Keene, editor Sotayome San.

Ex-Congressman Geary will no doubt be chosen to preside over the convention. He is the author of the Act which has done so much for California and the Pacific Coast States and his selection will be a fitting compliment to the only Congressman from this coast who had the brains to solve the Chinese Question by giving us the Act and the stamina to force its passage on the floors of Congress in the face of the bitterest opposition from many pro-Chinese members from the other side of the Rockies.

CLUB MEETING.

What the Women are Doing to Improve Sonoma.

The Woman's Club of Sonoma Valley met last Saturday in Odd Fellows Hall.

Owing to a provision in the Constitution and By-Laws of the club the four chairmen of the following committees were changed: Plaza, Sanitary, Literary and Entertainment. Mrs. Granice, Weems, Enos and Hill, being members of the Executive Board, were disqualified and in their places from the club at large were selected the following: Mrs. Bates, Mrs. Appleton, Mrs. Munfrey and Miss Pemberton.

The Sanitary Committee reported that they had examined the ordinances governing the city of Sonoma and found that they provided for a Board of Health. A petition asking the City Trustees to appoint such a board had been drawn up and would be circulated for signatures.

The Social and Literary Committee were asked to provide something in the way of entertainment for the next meeting which will be of a social nature.

The Plaza Committee reported much encouragement and the promise of substantial aid from many of our leading citizens. Several owners of artesian wells have generously offered to donate water for Plaza purposes. A written request to beautify the grounds comprising the Plaza was laid before the City Fathers Wednesday evening.

The Committee on Entertainment have secured Union Hall for New Year's eve and a grand benefit will be given.

The Woman's Club now numbers seventy-one members and is quite the proper caper.

Important to Tax-Payers.

Tax Collector Frank P. Grace gives notice that he has prepared an indexed list of the taxpayers of Sonoma and Glen Ellen Townships. This list contains the amount each taxpayer owes for State and county taxes for the fiscal year 1901-2. The book, which has been made up for the convenience of the taxpayers at Mr. Grace's personal expense, can be found in the business office of Harris' livery stable at all hours every day in the week.

THE PEOPLE KNEW HIM.

(Benson's Plaster is Pain's Master.)

George Washington made and sold flour, and every barrel of flour in the market branded "G. Washington, Mount Vernon," sold without delay. No question was ever raised as to quality or weight.

Benson's Porous Plaster sells on its reputation everywhere. All the buyer wants to be certain of is that the plaster offered him really is Benson's, and not a worthless imitation of it or substitute for it.

A plaster is the best form of external remedy, and Benson's is the best plaster; 5,000 physicians and druggists, and a multitude of people no man can number, have settled that. "You can trust it," they say. Coughs, colds, lame back, lumbago, muscular stiffness and rheumatism, troubles of the liver and kidneys, influenza or grip, pneumonia, and all other diseases open to external treatment, are at once relieved and cured by Benson's Plaster.

Do not assume that Belladonna, Capsicum or Strengthening plasters are "just as good as" Benson's. They are vastly inferior. No other plaster is as good as Benson's.

In competition with the best-known plasters of Europe and America, Benson's have received fifty-five highest awards. For sale by all druggists or we will prepay postage on any number ordered in the United States, on receipt of 25c. each. Seabury & Johnson, Mfg. Chemists, N.Y.
